SPRING FORECAST

Movement in hair is back! Trend is to blend all genres and eras to create a fresh new texture. Whether it's casual waves, lower quaffed chignons, or a full explosion of texture you want to add this to your style. Haircolor is multiple, warm tones for blonde, brunette, and red head's alike. Achieved by using disconnected and diagonal patterns working with cut design and face shape. Redken's new Cover Fusion haircolor designed to cover 50% or more gray promises to deliver these Spring 2010 caramels, coppers, and reds.
